

Floyd Harvest Festival and County Fair

The Floyd County Homecoming and Harvest Festival, featuring the County Fair, was created as an extension of the celebration of the County's 175 years.

The name has been shortened to the Floyd County Harvest Festival but the purpose remains the same. The goal is to highlight Floyd's agriculture, both past and present, to recognize our history and provide an opportunity for residents, visitors and family that have moved away to gather.

The Festival will be held at the Floyd County Recreational Park and the County Fair at the Paul C. Webb Youth Center (barn to the right as you enter the Floyd County Recreation Park).

Due to space limitations the only parking available on site will be a limited number of handicap parking spaces – visitors will be greeted just up the road at CITIZENS. A shuttle will run from available parking at Citizens, Floyd County Courthouse, and Floyd County Elementary School and make some additional stops.

Entrance fee is $2/person ages 12 and up.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

EXHIBITORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO READ THE GENERAL RULES AND THE DEPARTMENTAL RULES.

1. Every exhibitor, concessionaire, employee, or any other person having business on the grounds is required to abide by these rules and regulations or any other rules and regulations that may be formulated by Festival Management. Festival Management reserves for itself the sole and absolute right to construe its rules and regulations, and arbitrarily determine and settle all matters and differences in regard there to.
2. Festival Management reserves the right to extend an invitation to exhibit and the right to refuse an exhibitor or concessionaire without giving reason for such action.
3. All protests must be in writing, must plainly state the complaint, be accompanied by a fee of $25 which shall be forfeited to the fair in case protest is not sustained, and must be delivered to Festival Management within twelve (12) hours after the cause of protest.
4. The exhibitor or concessionaire assumes all risks of damage or loss, either to person or property for all and every cause whatsoever, including fire, the elements, violation of the law, negligence either on the part of the Festival, its officers, servants, agents, or employees, or other person or persons; and it is further expressly understood and agreed between the exhibitor or concessionaire and Festival Management, that the Festival incurs no liability or obligation to the exhibitor or concessionaire other than to permit the exhibitor or concessionaire to utilize the grounds of the Festival.
5. Competition is generally open to the world unless otherwise stated in departmental rules. Certain departments are limited and this also will be stated in departmental rules.
6. Exhibitors and concessionaires who participate in the Festival must have a signed contract on file with the Festival Management or if they exhibit their crafts, farm products, and machinery, they must have these items entered according to the rules and regulations for the department in which they are participating. Individual entries are limited to one per class. No one item may be entered in more than one class.

7. Exhibits must be delivered to the Paul C. Webb Youth Center (barn to the right as you enter the Floyd County Recreation Park). All exhibits must be removed according to departmental rules unless arrangements are made in writing before the opening of the Fair and agreed to by Festival Management.
8. The Festival Management will contract judges for all departments. The Festival reserves the right to substitute judges if necessary.
9. Judges are instructed to award first, second, and third places in all classes with three or more entries.
10. The judge's decision is final!
11. Any exhibitor who interferes with the judging will be promptly excluded from competition; afterwards, the premium or premiums awarded to this individual will be withheld.
12. Festival Management reserves the right to reject any exhibit which does not reflect merit and which would not be a credit to both the exhibitor and the Festival. Also, the right is reserved to reject any exhibit which is deemed objectionable or unsuited for public exhibit.
13. All exhibits are accepted conditionally pending inspection of the article or animal to be exhibited. Any article or animal which proves to be misrepresented or falsely classed will be rejected and the right of the exhibitor to further participate in the Festival will be denied.
14. No exhibits may be removed from the Exhibit Area prior to 4:30 on Saturday, September 19, 2009. Any exhibits removed prior to checkout time on Saturday, September 19, 2009 will forfeit any premium money won and ribbons earned. Exit of exhibits will begin on Saturday, September 19, 2009 at 4:30. All exhibits must be removed by 6 p.m. on Saturday, September 19, 2009. Goods become property of Festival Management after that time.
15. In all competitions, ribbons will be awarded according to the quality and prize money paid accordingly.
16. An exhibitor will not be allowed to have more than one entry per class.
17. No professional will be allowed to exhibit. A professional is anyone receiving substantial or/and regular income from the sale of their baked goods, handicrafts, photography, etc.
18. Youth I (ages 13 and under) and Youth II (ages 14 to 19) may exhibit in the appropriate age division or in the adult age division; however, they may not exhibit in the same class in both age divisions.
19. In all classes, there must be at least two entries to constitute competition and these entries must be made by different individuals. At the discretion of Festival Management, a class with only one entry may be allowed to show and will be awarded second place money and ribbon.
20. Premiums will be paid as soon after the fair as it is possible to audit the books.
21. In paying premiums, no evidence of awards shall be recognized except the entry book properly signed by the superintendent and judge, and not from the ribbons attached to the exhibit. Ribbons sometimes become misplaced.
22. It is understood that if weather conditions are such that Festival Management cannot pay their premiums in full, the exhibitors agree to accept such a proportion of the premiums as Festival Management finds they are able to pay and such payment shall be considered in full settlement of whatever premiums are due.
23. Festival Management will employ police, guards, and traffic coordinators and will take every precaution for the safety of the visitors, concessionaires, and exhibitors, but assumes no liability for personal injury, or loss, or damage to any property of the exhibitor, visitor, or concessionaire, etc. due to theft, fire, tornado, weather conditions, or other causes.
25. The Harvest Festival and County Fair will absolutely not issue pass-out checks, rain checks, or refunds on tickets or ticket exchanges.
26. No person will be allowed to distribute advertising matter on the grounds except from the contracted businesses. The tacking or posting of advertisements, bills, cards, etc., other than within the space occupied by exhibitor is strictly prohibited.

27. Distribution of hand bills, fliers, heralds, etc., will not be permitted under any circumstances. Anyone violating this rule is liable to a fine or expulsion from the grounds or both.

28. Due to space limitations, all exhibits may not be available for public viewing. Festival Management will make every attempt to display all exhibits.

Agricultural Olympics

Sign Up: 11:30 am
 Contest: 12:00 noon

Rules:

1. Teams are made up of 3 people ages 9 and up. Adults and youth may be on the same team.
2. Teams must pick a name for the entry form
3. Milk products will be consumed by at least two members so please make sure at least two members of your team can consume milk products.
4. This is intended to be a fun event where competition is minimal and fun abounds. Please help us keep it in this spirit.
5. Decision of the judges is final.

*Not required to be a 4H or FFA member to participate

Contest event order:

1. Milk Chugging - new washed calf bottles will be used. Only one team member will participate in the chugging but the others are encouraged to cheer their contestant on. The team whose member chugs the most milk in 2 minutes wins.
2. Hog Calling - the team can choose to have one, two or all members participate in this event. Be inventive. Costumes are great and even a little skit for this event will make it lots of fun. Creativity does count. Judges will determine the winners
3. Cheese Eating - one member will be given a slice of American cheese. A picture of something will be shown to all and the team member is asked to bite parts of the cheese away leaving the uneaten part in the shape of the picture. The best sculpture wins as determined by the judges
4. Hay Bale Stacking - a stack of 12 bales of hay will be on one end of the show area. Team members must move the entire stack beyond a marked line, restack the bales and all members must be on the stack without anyone touching the ground when time is called. The team with the fastest time wins. If the stack falls before the entire team is off the ground you must restack the bales and try again.

Points for each event will be combined to determine the winning team.
